

Quality Management System Software

for Testing and Calibration Laboratories

ISO/IEC 17025:2017 Automation

- | Robust Qms for your Laboratory
- | Save 80% of Time & Resources
- | Streamline Laboratory Processes

Effivity is a powerful, ready to use, pre-configured, highly customizable, simple, employee friendly, scalable, and automated quality management software for laboratories of all nature and size.

Customer Testimonial

Effivity is Affordable and Customizable QHSE software, It has all the Features you need, and they have Great Customer Service.

Effivity QMS helps laboratories to automate their processes, increase productivity, and standardize operations. It simplifies lab operations by providing a centralized system for managing the quality management system covering various workflow automation, document management, audits, complaint management, non-conformity management, training, supplier management, asset management. With Effivity QMS software, laboratories can implement a practical and effective quality management system as required by ISO/IEC 17025 standard. With the user-friendly interface and strong reporting capabilities, you don't just achieve the compliance with ISO/IEC 17025:2017 standard but also streamline your laboratory business processes while improving performance, reliability, productivity, and profitability. Go live in just few hours with this fully functional workflow-based ISO 17025 quality management system. Save time, money and valuable resources and be always audit ready.

Everything that is required as per ISO 17025 Standard:

- | Standardize your operations and manage SOPs from a central location
- | Implement robust document control
- | Manage KPIs and objectives
- | Robust approval workflow technology for supplier evaluation
- | Re-evaluate suppliers faster and more effectively
- | Allows to capture, investigate, and mitigate non-conformities
- | Standardize laboratory risk assessments and mitigate risks
- | Manage incoming, inprocess and final inspection for robust quality assurance
- | Plan, schedule, conduct, report and followup internal audits
- | Manage compliance obligations effectively
- | Plan and manage equipment calibration
- | Manage preventive and breakdown maintenance
- | Manage customer complaints & customer satisfaction

Effivity Modules for

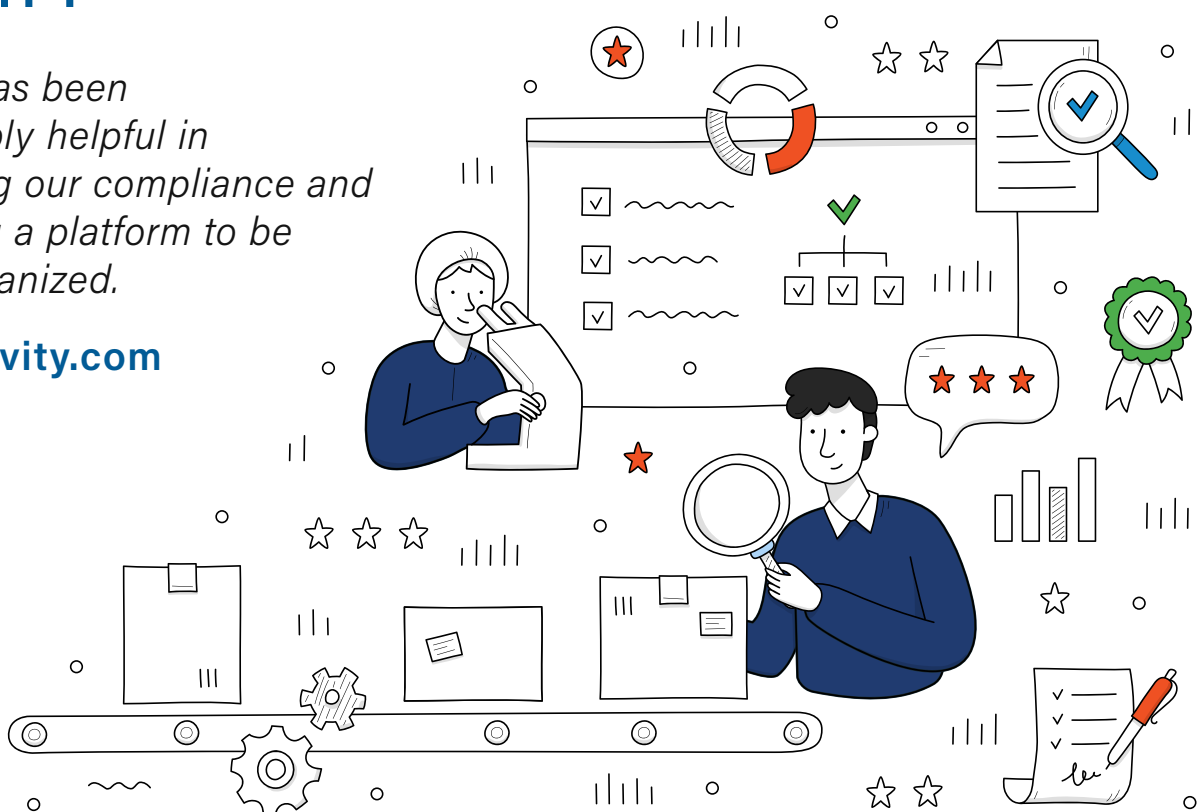

ISO 17025 Quality Management System

- | Context Of Organization
- | Risk And Opportunity
- | Policy And Objective
- | Compliance Management
- | Document Control
- | Supplier Management
- | Non-Conformance Management
- | Audit Management
- | HR And Training Management
- | Change Management
- | KPI Management
- | Calibration Management
- | Preventive Maintenance
- | Equipment Management
- | Quality Inspection Management
- | Management Review
- | Report Management

Effivity has been remarkably helpful in managing our compliance and providing a platform to be more organized.

www.effivity.com

Benefits of Effivity

- | Ensures your laboratory is compliant with international standards
- | Automated analytics and reporting features
- | Provide real-time dashboard for effective decision making
- | Reduces the chances of human error
- | Streamline processes within the laboratory and avoid duplication of effort
- | Enhanced security and data integrity
- | Increased efficiency by automating and escalating tasks
- | Powerful search and reporting capabilities to find the information you need.
- | Ability to create custom workflow for laboratory
- | Achieve continual improvement for the laboratory operations.
- | Manage suppliers and sub-contractors effectively
- | Securely access your laboratory data and information from anytime and anywhere.
- | Save more than 85% of the time
- | Strengthen brand name and reputation
- | Be always audit ready

